Triumphant Success

Brainerd's Celebration Shows her Crested and Shown for Grand Victory in the Battle of the City.

A Blaze of Banners and Pageantry.
Moving Exhibition of Manufactures and Trade here Equaled in a city.

Decorations so Lavish as to Call For Comment and Arrest the Attention of All.

The day set for the driving of the Golden Spike, Saturday, September 1, 1883 will be long to be remembered by the people of the northwest, and Brainerd in particular.

The hotel scene was being filled up at last, and the hotel and restaurant congratulate themselves on this acquisition to their business centers.

Among the fine parties recently entertained at the Hotel, the most interesting was that given by the Hotel and Restaurant.
