Brainerd Dispatch

Published every Thursday except on Public Holidays at $1.50 per year in ADVANCE.

E. W. Ingraham, Editor and Proprietor.

Published at the office of the Brainerd Dispatch, Brainerd, Minnesota, at the second-class postage office established August 28, 1879.

POPULATION OF BRAINERD 12,000.

Estimated at the Post Office at Brainerd, Minnesota, at a second-class postage office established August 28, 1879.

Brooklyn's directory this year has 180,000 names.

There is said to be but one small herd of buffalo in Texas.

A Norwich, Conn., office door bears a placard, "No Politics Talked Here."

The old Memorial church at Washington has been sold for $150.

The Choctaw militia in the Indian Territory are hunting down horse thieves.

C. H. Jenson, the noted Kansas jayhawker, is dead at Leavenworth.

The pioneers of Oregon celebrated last week Tuesday the settlement of the state.

Merlin Thompson, the slayer at his home in Warsaw N. Y. He goes to Europe soon.

The fax crop in Minnesota is looking well and a beautiful yield is expected.

A free Methodist canvassing will be held at Verdala, July 2 to 3 inclusive.

Last Friday the Fergus Falls thermometer got up to 100; so says Telegram.

The last log of the season has left Fergus Falls on its way down the raging fire.

A Scandinavian Methodist camp meeting commenced tomorrow at Southwick, Turtle Lake.

The Chicago Tribune is going to print a serial by Bret Harte, called "Blue Grass Peninsula."

S. P. Brown, a delegate from the Maine Democratic convention was eighty-seven years old.

States Island wants a ferry across the Narrows to reach New York by way of Brooklyn.

John Mackay of Atchison, Kan. got a $10,000 verdict for a foot out on the Missouri Pacific.

Norwich N. Y. is upset because her best colored people are refused admission to the skating rink.

Cholera has broken out in the neighborhood of Pekin, China. Those attacked die in a few hours.

Nearly all the officers of the Soldiers' Orphan's home at Xenia, Ohio, have been removed, and their places filled with Democrats.

Joseph Beldor and wife of Dover, N. Y. have been married twelve years and are the parents of three pairs of twins, four children who arrived one at a time, and one outfit of triplets, raising the number to 14.

Last May a young bride in Wheeling, W. Va. died and was buried. In moving her remains Monday the body was found lying face down, and the hands filled with the hair from the head of the entombed victim in despair at her terrible fate. The family of the unfortunate young lady are nearly crazed with grief.

Frightful Dumb Bureau.

Helena, Mont., June 23.—Yesterday a dumb horse from a mountain side near Coffin, twenty miles south of Helena. Water eight feet deep rushed down the gulch toward Jefferson city. The horse was washing away a Chinese home and overthrowing sleep on a prairie. An alarm was telegraphed down to Jefferson from Coffin, and part of the people found refuge on a hill near by, while others sought second floors. The water spread before reaching the town, and when it passed through the streets was not deep enough to sweep any but a few small frame houses, and nobody was drowned. A quarter of a mile of the Helena & Jefferson railroad was washed out. Much damage was done to goods in stores and crops on ranches.

General Crook's Indian Policy

General Crook is not an Indian but the "old man" of West Point. The delinquency list of this county will be only about two thirds as long as last year.

The Farmer's Milling association of Moline, Otter Tail county, has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state.

Another venturesome craft has launched upon the troubled sea of journalism in this state. "The Herald" of the Rantokim, cleared from Hastings, loomed up above the waves.

They were harvesting it and they the same day last week at Bank Centre. While one was cutting for two feet thick another was cutting for two feet high. This goes to show that Minnesota has a climate to suit the most exacting.

DAKOTA.
Bismarck has a building boom. Bathgate will build a 30,000-foot trading in real earnest at Bismarck is quite lively.

The Farmer's Association at Hamilton will build a new elevator. Creamery business is becoming an important factor to the Dakota farmer.

The argue says tacking on the Fargo Southern is to be completed this week.

The Bartlett Courier is a new publication just started at that town by Allan V. Brewer. It is a promising and newsey sheet.

Valley City Times. A number of gentlemen who have traveled extensively throughout the Northwest, state that crops are in better condition in Dakota than at any other time for years.

Manitok is all "torn up" over order of the mayor to close saloons on Sunday.
