

Brainerd Dispatch

Some days ago A. E. Taylor, the outgoing alderman of the second ward...

The contestants for the first ward aldermanic honor will be A. E. Veon and P. M. Lagerquist.

Several candidates who expect to enter the field for political honors and public money are holding back at the moment.

Forest Parsons will probably be the only candidate for the office of city clerk at the coming election...

The St. Paul Dispatch is very much agitated just now over the question as to whether Gov. Hubbard will ask for another term or not.

Would not the little abate up street do well to take a tumble to itself, let politics alone, and devote its pages to fastidiously energetic to its patient medicine advertisement.

Mayor Geo. A. Pillsbury of Minneapolis, has declined to accept a renomination and the high honors are left to a successor as to who can carry the city.

C. C. Brown, late editor of the defunct Record, published at Royalton a time, announces that he will shortly commence the publication of an illustrated 48 page market at that place.

The attempt to put up the price of oranges on the strength of the recent reports that Florida would not produce a crop this year on account of the cold weather has failed.

No candidate for any office supported by the Tribune was ever elected, and yet that sheet has been right on with its work of slaughter by its editorial pen.

There are rumors that the extension of the Filibuster in riding time exclusive of the United States, will transfer about 600,000,000 feet, representing at a fair estimate of $250 per foot, the largest sum involved in one timber purchase in the Northwest.

The candidates for office in the coming election are as follows: Wm. Mahood and James Haykin for street commissioner; Lewis Forsyth for alderman; T. M. Riley and T. Whitledge, for city assessor.

C. B. Sleeper has consented to allow his name to be placed in nomination with the Mayorality at the coming election and there is no doubt that he will be elected.

As yet there are no other candidates in the field for the position as well if not better than any man that could be elected.

The Tribune will undoubtedly speak with its usual accuracy when it says that the fact is the certainty with which it speaks has defeated every candidate it ever supported, and at the present time the editor of that sheet has no one in view who will step up to the mark and be slaughtered.

In speaking of the passage by the house of the Brainerd case, a Washington correspondent says the special action on the bill took place in a room where the two men were present.
