Our Own Mayor.

Mayor Sleper is up to the mark, and appreciated the good advice tendered him last week, which resulted in his withdrawing his name from re-election as mayor of our prosperous city, but in the same spirit his friends and supporters...

What Will be the result?

There is only one man in town who can support both candidates for mayor. No price is offered for the solution of this problem. The Tribune's candidate was knocked out only in the canvass. Will it come to be lead around by the nose and support a substitute? The Tribune can now fall into line and support Cal. Sleper for mayor if it really don't like to left entirely, you know, because its editor announced the vote of the board of directors...

It is the duty of every citizen.

Now as far as we know no difference to us whether the county treasurer be a Democrat or a Republican. It is the duty of every citizen to support the best man for the office, and in this respect the county treasurer is no exception.
