Frank Hartley has been interviewing his old Brainerd friends during the week.

Mr. J. J. Deane has gone to Minneapolis with a view to a new position.

Mr. J. W. Keady, of Aitkin, was in the city Wednesday.

Wm. Paine and a block in southern Brainerd Monday, and to take more on Tuesday.

There has been an unusual amount of activity in real estate here during the past week.

Mr. J. H. Ingraham and son have returned from a two weeks' visit at Aitkin.

When will Brainerd's board of trade be re-elected? This matter should be decided immediately.

The "three little mice" was roped in a few days ago and is doing quite a considerable work of late. The membership is increasing weekly.

Patience's young ladies, gentlemen, so long as they are as moderate in price as traveling institutions who come here, they will be well patronized.

The different Old Fellows' lodges in this city are preparing for a grand celebration on Tuesday evening, April 28.

The Villard narrowly escaped burning last Saturday evening, caused from an oil lamp in the kitchen. The blaze was extinguished before much damage was done.

The point shop at the Northern Pacific Hotel was burnt out about 10 o'clock. The fire originated in the roof and ran down the chimney.

The Dutch Herald says the butcher shops of that city closed last Sunday, and the meat market was closed.

The Sunday Globe gives an account of a ten-day glove fight between Prof. Clark, of Boston, and Billy Blunden, of London.

Patience's young ladies, gentlemen, so long as they are as moderate in price as traveling institutions who come here, they will be well patronized.

The humblers are breaking camp very fast, but the comparatively cold weather makes it possible for a larger number of them to continue work.

Edward B. Lincoln, who was injured in the same work that killed Matt Agostini, of this city, has been in a hospital against the Northern Pacific Railroad company to recover $10,000 for injuries received in the accident.

The Pioneer Press of yesterday says the Minnesota jeweler who eloped with Miss Jacobson made her his wife in the city.
