Unpublished Law. A bill which passed the last legislature authorizing the payment of a bounty for killing gophers and black birds is the subject of inquiry at the secretary of state's office.

Game Protection. Section of the new law for the protection of game in Minnesota provides for the appointment of game wardens by the governor.

Not Married Now. The case of the woman who the Pioneer Press says is always looking for a drive on some one, gets of the following one of our reporters.

Representative J. C. Flynn, of Little Falls, was in the Merchants' building yesterday looking for a landowner as his years of bachelorhood during the last legislature it was much of a speculation among his brother members of the legislature.

Messrs. Dolber, Goodale & Co., of Boston, Mass., the proprietors of the "Mellin's Food," are advertising to the effect that the following order should be addressed to Dolber, Goodale & Co., Proprietors.

Our Baby's Threat. New York News, March 25.—Coroner Bedford and party have just returned from holding the inquest over the remains of Mrs. Margaret E. Ryan, who was found dead yesterday in their sitting room.

Caning in the Penitentiary. The Northern Pacific and the Manitoba are calling upon the state for a special law to be passed, calling in all passes. The circuit judge in St. Paul and Duluth is advised by counsel that the interstate law permits except for the individual use of clergy members, but that the Minnesota state law does not permit the issuance of half-rate tickets or permits to clergy members or others for use between points in the state of Minnesota.

A Justice Booth. Ashland's justice is hurried and each train brings the suckers and others back to Duluth many of whom have to get on Duluth's legitimate "realty exchange"—Duluth Herald.

Drugged After an Opera. A servant girl of Professor Shoemaker of the Normal school attended the opera house last night. She returned about 3 o'clock almost unconscious and fell upon the sidewalk. She was taken to the hospital and after being treated for some time she was discharged.
