This question of building a motor line from Anoka to Minneapolis is being treated.

A new postal card will shortly be issued which can be sealed. The price will be about as heretofore.

Gov. Clegg's friends are already beginning to boom their favorite for the democratic nomination in 1922. They may nominate him but to elect him is impossible.

The Minnesota Tribune has been sold to a syndicate composed of Tom Lowry, A. B. Wilson, William Smith, and others, which will assume control of the newsy required property from the state and the purchase is said to be $300,000.

James Looney has dismissed the case of the Educational Endowment Association, of Minneapolis, against the state, claiming that the association is a corporation under the laws of Minnesota. The former asked for an injunction restraining the latter from using a name similar to his.

The Canadian government has notified the American government of the restoration of the post office on the route from Canada into the States, from 3 cents for each half ounce to 5 cents for one ounce. This reduction will probably be of great benefit to the great many former Canadians who live in this city.

A JOURNAL for $5,000 has been awarded Dr. Frank Foy, in his capacity as the editor of the "Herald," in the county newspaper race in the city. The prize is the longest road which has ever been collected in any city.

STREETS have been freed of the mud and dirt of the city. The streets are now clean and bright.

Edridge and Wilson, Brainerd, were visiting friends at the Fort Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ross drove to Little Falls Monday.

J. J. Borg made a flying trip to Brainerd Tuesday. Drove his two-wheeler.

The night operators respectively Tucker and Wideman caught some fish at the dam during the past week.

Some of our Fort Ripley boys are taking of having their hair cut by Pauline. Don't say a good notion, girls, for thinking you will look just too cute for anybody.

Sam Moore was made the happiest man in town Monday morning by the arrival of a big twelve pound boy. Mother and babe doing well.

Very hot has been very late for the past week from an accidental stroke on the knee with the back of an axe, while trimming some trees. He is now getting set around without the aid of a crutch.

G. U. Knable has secured the contract to roll the landings along the Mississippi in this vicinity.

AN UNNATURAL FATHER.
He is committed to jail on a charge of being a father who has murdered his child.

A most disgusting and unnatural story concerning the criminal trial of a father who has murdered his child comes to us this week from the town of Garrison, on Mill Lake. It is the story of a man who brought a young woman to the town who was engaged to be married to the respectable people of this community and who had a child by her.

The Northern Pacific makes a change in time card Sunday, by which Nos. 1 and 2 and Nos. 7 and 8 will arrive and depart about 15 minutes earlier than of yore.
