Herrn STATIONER has been appointed an organizer for the campaign of 1902 in this county.

A JURY resolution has passed the house asking that United States Senators be elected by popular vote.

The city council has voted a special of two hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the miserable wretch who has been setting fire in late in this city.

A BILL to regulate railroads has been introduced into the house which, should it become a law, perfectly confers all railroad property in its state.

It has been expected that the Prie-Dann contest would be settled in the house yesterday by the reading of the verdict.

The object of his resolution is to make the matter stand over until the fall for certain persons who the committee favored could if they would.

We have received the following resolutions with request to publish them: The meeting will be held in Brainerd on Jan. 20th to take action in regard to the matter and all counties having an interest in the matter are requested to send one or more delegates to the convention.

At London, England, and Bremen, Prussia, the longest day in the world is a half hour. At Stockholm, Sweden, it is a quarter of an hour in length.

The Frodo Chango editorially says it is believed that no machinery will ever be invented that will supersede the old way of tending your whisky, begging your girl or spanking your baby.

An Artists Ready Reply, even a serious criticism may be answered by a happy answer that changes its meaning, and it is often no less fortunate to be able to turn a good-natured one.

One year, however, Lord Palmerston took a different fancy to his picture called "Sumner in the Louvre" and bought it at a high price.

"Locked horses are becoming quite a feature in the city," says a gentleman the other day, "and some of the Aldermen are not a little sorry by occasional sales of these contraptions."

Dr. Stelling, the famous oculist, while lecturing to his students at Vienna recently told a story of Dr. Taylor of Brazil.

From the Arkansas Traveler: A yellow-fever patient, that had spent nearly all his life shaking with chills in the Mississippi river bottoms.

George Kennan's suit of prison clothes and the iron chain which he wore in the penitentiary at Sing Sing, New York, have been brought home to him.

At Philadelphia the longest day is a fourth of an hour longer than at London, and at Montreal, Canada, it is a day.

Not Wearing the Watch. Chicago Tribune: "We are continually reading of the check of a drummer, or a man of letters, in the Palmer hotels Saturday evening."

Religion in Russia. Most educated Russians have no notion of a church, the black and the white. The white religion, which is a religion in a very low state of culture.

Silk and Silk-worms. Comparatively few silk cocoons are raised in this country—not more than 10,000 pounds in all, probably of which amount the United States government consumes for its experimental purposes.
