A Multitude of Counsel.
The opinion is rapidly gaining ground that a remedy which is efficient in the hands of the skillful practitioner, a remedy prepared by him as the result of years of observation and experience, is more likely to succeed in individual cases, may, if placed in the hands of the general public, be instrumental in curing many who are otherwise incurable.

WHOSE CANDIDATE IS HE?
Judge Holland's Candidacy Reputed by the Populists.
His Non-Partisan Summation in a Farewell Address to the Citizens of Crow Wing County.

A Candidate Without a Party.
Judge Holland, of this city, comes to be having a serious time in his candidacy for election, for the reason that he can get no party or organization to father his candidacy.

The Journal editor considers it a great joke that Mr. Coppell did the honorable thing and gave the protection of his name to the candidate who had been wronged. It undoubtedly is an absurd thing in the opinion of men of the stamp of the Journal.

The selection of a sheriff at the coming election is one of the most important things to be considered by the voters of Crow Wing county. The selection of a sheriff is a position which has no ally found during his continuance in the office, and the selection of a sheriff is a position which has no ally found during his continuance in the office.

The so-called delegates convention for said district, held at Ellingsville, Minn., which professed to nominate G. W. Holland for judge of this district, was called and held without any authority whatever of the people.

The interests of the Republican party do not require the election of Mr. Coppell. Journalist.
For once the Journal is correct and we hasten to let the world know of it.

The Journal goes frantic over the fact that the democratic nominee for county attorney did not vote for the Journal's candidate for sheriff.

The coming Legislature should be strongly republican in both its branches, and we are likely to get strongly upon the republican side.

Golden Honors

from the

Golden Coast

Dr. Price's Baking Powder

California, empire of the Pacific, salutes the world. Her Midwinter Fair closed in a midsummer blaze of glory. Second only to the Columbian Exposition in extent, variety and splendor, the coast display was a veritable triumph. Out of her abundance the state poured her treasures—and the nations of the earth came to aid her in her noble exhibitions.

Memorable were the exhibits of gold and silver, of wheat and oil, of fruit and wine, of silk and wool—and all that man and nature could combine to produce. And no exhibit attracted more attention or excited warmer approval than that of

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Official tests showed it to be highest in leavening power, purest in quality, and most efficient in results of all baking powders made. Accordingly, the Highest Award and Gold Medal were conferred on Dr. Price's at the Midwinter Fair.

The triumph at San Francisco confirms the victory at Chicago. The Midwinter Fair verdict sustains and vindicates the best award of highest honors on Dr. Price's by the Jury of awards at the World's Columbian Exposition.

AMERICAN OBSERVANCE

Religious Proclamation Like That of Denmark

The main service of the World's Columbian Exposition, which opened on Monday, was the annual religious observance at the fairgrounds. This observance, which is held in honor of the anniversary of the discovery of America, is a unique and beautiful feature of the exposition.

The observance was held in the grand auditorium of the exposition, and was presided over by the president of the exposition, Mr. George W. Colver. The services were of a most beautiful and inspiring character, and were attended by a vast concourse of people.

The observance was held in honor of the anniversary of the discovery of America, and was a fitting and beautiful tribute to the great discoverer. The services were of a most beautiful and inspiring character, and were attended by a vast concourse of people.

WALKING STICKS

A Boston clubman reports for the week-end that the walking sticks of the members of the club were all of a different color. The clubman says that the walking sticks were all of a different color, and that the club members were all of a different color.
