A WEEK OF HORSE RACING.

$4,000 in Purse and Prizes to Be Hung Up AT THE SWARTZ DRIVING PARK.
During the week of September 10th- One Hundred Fast Horses Expected.

Brainerd is to have a week of horse racing, commencing Sept. 10, and it is expected that some of the very best horses in the country will be present.

M. K. Swartz, proprietor of the Swartz Driving Park, is nothing if not enterprising. He never undertakes anything that he does not make the most of, and in conducting the driving park he has displayed a push and energy that excites the admiration of all. With his characteristic energy he has arranged for a week of racing at the driving park during the week of the state fair, and has hung up $4,000 in purses—succeeding that will bring all the fast horsefodder in the state fair to this city on that occasion.

He has been in correspondence with these horsemen, and he has assurances that fully fifty horses from the state fair will be here. Other advice indicates that from the surrounding country enough other horses will come to swell the number of racers to over 100.

The races will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, allowing Monday and Saturday for the horses to arrive and depart. Three harness races and a running race will be held every day. Special purses will be offered for certain races, and every other effort made to secure a large attendance.

Special rates will be made on the Northern Pacific and B. & N. M., and it is expected that hundreds of outsiders will attend.

Mr. Swartz has made the driving park a great medium of advertisement for the city. It is surprising how well the driving park is known throughout the state, and the coming meeting will add to the reputation of the park and city if all lovers of racing unite and assist Mr. Swartz in making the meeting a great success.

They have come to the Brainerd with the aim of doing all that is in their power to do for the benefit of the people, to visit the sick, to help the needy, to conduct funeral services or anything else they may be called upon to do for the benefit of God's Kingdom here.

AFTER THE SHAH

Unsuccessful Attempt Made in Paris To Assassinate the Ruler of Persia.

Would-Be Murderer Mounts the Royal Carriage With Revolver in Hand.

Prompt Action on the Part of the Shah's Companions. Prevents a Tragedy.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—An attempt on the life of the shah of Persia, Muzaffer ed-Din, was made during the morning, but, luckily, it resulted in no harm to his majesty.

A mob broke through a line of police-men as the shah was leaving his apartments and tried to mount the royal carriage. He held a revolver in his hand, but as soon as his intention was divulged, the police disarmed him before he was able to fire.

As the police station the man expressed regret that he had been unable to carry out his intention. He said: "This is an affair between me and my conscience."

He was shot in the chest of the shah emerged from the court of the palace in the carriage, the man's rifle, while opposite him and General Feraud, the carriage turned to the right towards the Avenue des Bois de Boulogne, and proceeded but a few yards when a man, dressed like a laborer, sprung from between two automobiles, where he had been hidden. He broke through the line of policemen, overturning a bicycle officer, and jumped upon the royal carriage step. In one hand the man held a case which he raised as though to strike, but this movement was only intended to hide his real purpose, for, in the other hand, he held a revolver.

The attempted assassination there came to an end for the grand vizier struck the weapon from the man's hand and at the same time officers brought him from behind and overpowered him.

A crowd of 500 people, who witnessed the attempted assassination, made a rush towards the would-be murderer and tried to attack him, but there were many police in the neighborhood, and these prevented the mob from doing violence to the innocent. The prisoner was taken to the police station.

The would-be assassin declines absolutely to give his name or nationality. He speaks but little, and that with a large vocabulary and blue gray eyes. He was dressed in a blouse and wide trousers, the usual clothes of a workman.

CHAS. TURN IS NEXT.

Remains of King Humbert to Be Declared a Prisoner of War.

ROME, Aug. 2.—The remains of King Humbert, still maintained his excited demeanor and has to be dressed forcibly. During the day he exclaimed in a wailing: "It will be the man's turn next!"

The police have found evidence that the shah had in collusion with others, and numerous arrests have been made. The shah's brother, a schoolmaster, another kinsman named Marzani and several others have been arrested. The Italian general, Natali Pissinatti, who was arrested at Ancona, admits traveling with Bread from Milan to Monza.

Washington Observe This Action. WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Such steps as have been taken by the United States government towards the arrest of persons in this country who may have been conspired with the Italian government of King Humbert, were not instituted at the formal request of the Italian government. The Italian ambassador, Dr. Tornielli, has been requested to appear on this subject with the United States government and as a matter of international comity the government has

FIRE DESTROYS THREE RESIDENCES.

Bad Fire in East Brainerd Early Yesterday Morning.

Total Loss About $20,000. All Covered by Insurance.

Three residence properties were destroyed by the fire in East Brainerd about six o'clock yesterday morning, entailing a loss of about two thousand dollars, which was fully covered by insurance.

The houses were on 4th avenue, opposite the Lowell school building, and were all occupied. The fire started in the kitchen of Joe St. Peter's house, it is thought, by a spark falling from the kitchen stove through a crack in the floor, and was not discovered until it had gained considerable headway. The alarm was given and the fire department responded, but the fire raged did not carry enough force to reach to the nearest hydrant, and a trip to the East Brainerd hose house was necessary for more hose. By this time St. Peter's house had been completely a mass of flame, and the fire had communicated to the residences of Seth Maudslugh and J. Brockway on either side. The St. Peter and Maudslugh residences were entirely destroyed, while the Brockway residence was quite badly burned.

The loss was as follows: Joe St. Peter, on house $600, on furniture $150; Seth Maudslugh, on house $600, furniture $150; W. E. Brockway, on house $300.

Mr. Brockway's house was occupied by Engineer Mervin and family, whose furniture was all removed, but suffered a loss of probably $500 damage in removing.

Mr. Brockway carried $300 insurance on his house, Mr. Maudslugh on his house and $100 on his furniture, and Mr. St. Peter $400 on his house and $300 on his furniture.

The residences of that vicinity are indignant because of their lack of fire protection, but will make a vigorous kick to the council Monday night to have the water main extended. Only one house would have been burned if there had been a hydrant within two blocks of the fire.

WILL REMOVE THE SHOPS.

Brainerd Will Get Those Now Located at Gladstone.

Change To Be Made Soon as Plans Are Perfected.

Under the above heading the Minneapolis Times on Monday publishes the following notice of the intention of the N. P. railroad to concentrate all their shops in this city as soon as it can be conveniently done:

The plans of the operating department of the Northern Pacific regarding the old St. Paul & Duluth line are, in a sense, chaotic, but a number of changes are known to have been decided on that will be of vital concern to those affected. One of the biggest items directly on the shops at Gladstone. As soon as proper arrangements can be made they will be closed and the machinery and the force of employees transferred to Brainerd.

The change will not be made for some little time. The policy of the Northern Pacific is to have its larger shops at smaller towns, away from the cities. In the first place this principle has been found to result to the benefit of the road, for all supplies which employees need must necessarily be transported over the line, and another consideration is that, being away from other railroad men and from city life, employees are more likely to attend to their work in the manner required.

The Times announced two weeks ago that the St. Paul & Duluth was to be double tracked from the twin cities to the head of the lakes as soon as traffic warranted such an expenditure. With the Milwaukee alliance, including the additional business that is certain to be thrown to the road, the policy will be necessary before the campaign can possibly finish.

Major Redwood's Force Has a Starvation Fight With Moslems.

BEHALF, Aden, Aug. 1.—Major H. B. Redwood with 400 men and two guns, started July 24 to locate the camp. The camp was found, the warriors numbering 5,000 to 4,000 men, three days' marching from the east of Douppouss. Several hours were spent in the details of the camp, the Adenians after a starvation struggle. Major Redwood's losses were heavy, but the camp will be necessary before the campaign can possibly finish.

London, Aug. 2.—The Daily Telegraph, on the authority of the Cape Town correspondent, asserts that does not of the highest importance, announcing from England, have been discovered in Pretoria implicating members of the House of Commons and other prominent persons in England who have agitated in favor of the Boers. It says that further developments may be expected shortly.

ROYALTON ROUTED.

Down River Sluggers Beaten By Brainerd on Sunday.

The Brainerd club on Sunday easily defeated the crack Royalton team, strengthened by the cream of the St. Cloud club, at the West Front street ground before a large crowd of spectators. Tom Derocker, of the Maroons, was in the box for Brainerd, and pitched a magnificent game throughout. Connors did equally as well back of the bat. Doty, Royalton's crack left-handed pitcher, tossed the ball for the visitors, and played a good game, although he was hit more freely than Derocker. Neither club scored for two innings, but Brainerd got two in the third. In the fourth the visitors succeeded in getting two on errors, but could draw nothing but ground balls afterward. Brainerd made 3 in the 4th, 1 in the 5th and 3 in the 6th, making nine scores to 2 for the visitors. Burns, of this city, and Fisher, of Royalton, were umpires, and gave satisfaction. The following is the record of the game:

Scoreboard table with columns for Brainerd, Royalton, and various players (Peterson, Connors, Englestrom, How, Fin, Brown, Derocker, Murphy) with runs, hits, errors, and total statistics.

SUMMARY: Struck out by Derocker 7, by Doty 7; wild pitches by Doty 2; bases on balls off Derocker 1; Doty 4; left on bases, Brainerd 8, Royalton 5; pass balls, by Newman 3; two base hits, Englestrom and Thielman; three base hits, Rice. Time of game: 1:50; umpires, Burns and Fisher.

Dobley Thielman, Louis Vossberg and Jerome Connely have returned from Brainerd, where they went on Saturday night to play with Royalton in a game on Sunday afternoon. The Buffaloes served much for the visiting delegation and scored nine times while the visiting team made the circuit of the base twice - Journal Press.

"SPARTACUS."
The Author's Story of How He Came to Write It.
A writer in the Levistator Journal who interviewed Rev. Elijah Kellogg says:
"When asked if he had written any declamations besides 'Spartacus to the Christians,' 'Virginia to the Roman Army' and 'Partisus to the People,' he replied that he had written 'Hellas,' but that it had never been published. Then he asked the writer if he had ever heard how 'Spartacus' came to be written, and when told that he had never heard an authentic statement concerning it, Mr. Kellogg said:
"During my first year in Andover Theological seminary we were required to write original declamations and declaim them before an audience. A committee of three seniors criticized the speaker publicly, and Professor Parks performed the same duty privately. I always dreaded to face an audience
