AGUINALDO CAPTURED

GENERAL FUNTON'S DARING PROJECT IS COMPLETELY SUCCESSFUL.

AN INTERESTING PROBLEM

Administration Will Now Have to Determine What to Do With the Insurgent Chief—Anything From Death Penalty to Complete Amnesty—Bic to Lopez Says Some Other Filipino Will Take the Leadership.

Manila, March 28.—General Francisco's daring project for the capture of Aguinaldo in his hiding place in the province of Ibabala, inland of Luzon, has proved completely successful.

Aguinaldo was captured there on March 23.

The United States gunboat Vicksburg, Commander E. B. Barry, with General Funston and Aguinaldo on board, arrived here during the morning.

WHAT TO DO WITH HIM.

Interesting Question for the Administration to Settle.

Washington, March 28.—Official news of the capture of Aguinaldo has not yet reached the war department. The capture of Aguinaldo will be a source of great satisfaction to the president and his advisers. Coming so soon after the surrender reported by General MacArthur of prominent Filipino officers and the successful establishment of civil local government by the Taft commission, they feel that the end of the rebellious warfare in the islands is near at hand.

The disposition of Aguinaldo, now that he has been apprehended, will be an interesting question for the administration to determine. The possibility of his capture at any time always had been kept in view and that of his capture had been a matter of informal discussion by the officials here. It is not believed, however, that any definite line of action was ever determined upon in regard to the matter.

While the question of punishment rests with the military authorities it is believed the president will make the matter one for determination primarily by the authorities here.

SAVS THERE ARE OTHERS.

Sixto Lopez Asserts That the Fight Will Still Continue.

Boston, March 28.—Senator Sixto Lopez, formerly secretary of Aguinaldo, was informed of the Associated Press report announcing the capture of the noted Filipino leader and was asked if he had any comment to make upon it.

Senator Lopez expressed surprise at the correctness of the report, but said that even if it were true there were other Filipino besides Aguinaldo who would take the leadership and that the defense of the Filipinos would continue. The policy of the latter would not be affected. Senator Lopez would not talk at length, saying that he would prepare a statement for the press in a few days.

TOUCHED HIS PARTNER.

Edward Brown, a Lumberman, Believes His Part of $32 and His Watch While Asleep.

Edward Brown, a lumberman, was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday for stealing $32 in money and a gold watch from his room mate, a fellow lumberman, while the latter was resting comfortably in the arms of Morphine.

Brown and his victim, Andrew Olson, occupied a room together at the Antler's hotel on Tuesday night. About 5 a. m. Andrew awoke from a peaceful slumber and discovered that Brown had gone, taking with him the contents of his, Olson's pockets, including $32 in money and his gold watch. Olson immediately arose and notified Officer Hurley, who found Brown enjoying life in a Laurel street saloon. He was arrested and lodged in jail, and when searched over $100 and Olson's watch was found on his person. His preliminary examination was set for Saturday at 10 a. m.

TEN YEARS IN STILLWATER.

Ralph Hall, Alias J. Adrian, Given Above Sentence by Judge McLenahan.

District court closed on Monday night. The case of Wm. McLaughlin, indicted for burning the crematory, occupied the time of the court on Friday, Saturday and Monday, going to the jury about four o'clock on Monday afternoon. After a few moments the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the prisoner was discharged.

On Saturday evening Judge McLenahan passed sentence on Ralph Hall, convicted of forgery, and Sam Lambert, and Jas. Sullivan, who both plead guilty to robbery. Attorney E. W. Crane, on behalf of Lambert, and W. H. Crowell for Sullivan addressed the court asking clemency for the men, and the judge then sentenced Lambert to three years hard labor in Stillwater and Sullivan to one year.

Ralph Hall, alias James Adrian, drew a longer sentence. The judge in passing sentence remarked that he had not only been convicted of robbery, but he had also committed perjury by going on the stand and swearing to a story that was false on his face. He was given ten long years at hard labor in Stillwater.

The prisoner received the sentence coolly, not a muscle of his face indicating his surprise. He was taken to Stillwater that night by Sheriff Erickson, who found he had served time there before under the name of McKay. He is an old offender and got no more than he deserved.

Judge Baxter has rendered a decision transferring the Martin-Durkin case to Sherburne county for trial, hence the case will now be tried at Elk River, before Judge Giddings, at the term commencing the first Monday in May.

ENLARGE THE HARRISON SCHOOL.

A Mass Meeting of Citizens Endorse the Proposition of the School Board.

A mass meeting of citizens was held at Gardner Hall on Wednesday night on a call of the board of education to consider the matter of providing funds to enlarge the Harrison school in southeast Brainerd. About 200 citizens were in attendance.

The meeting was called to order by President Hughes, who stated the object of the meeting. Mayor Halsted was elected chairman and W. S. Cox secretary.

Only the matter of enlarging the Harrison school was considered. Mr. Mahlum stated that there was some fault finding a year ago when the board enlarged the Lincoln school on its own motion, and now that more room was needed and it was necessary to enlarge the Harrison school, the board desired to have the citizens pass on the matter, so there could be no complaints in the future. The cost would be about $11,000, and the money could be obtained at the local banks at five or six per cent.

Prof. Turner, from his monthly reports, showed that the enrollment was rapidly increasing, the present seating capacity was 1,744, and the enrollment 1,948. Mr. John Harley thought the additional room was unnecessary at present, as the board could fit up the basements in the several schools for school room, as they were well lighted and well fitted for the purpose.

Speeches on the subject were made by Dr. Gross, Rev. J. Roderick Mooney, Prof. Wilson, M. J. Reilly, and others, all favoring the enlargement of the school. After a lengthy discussion M. J. Reilly offered a motion that it was the sense of the meeting that the board proceed to enlarge the Harrison school as proposed and make whatever arrangement to raise the funds to do so that it deemed advisable. The motion was carried with one or two dissenting votes, and the meeting adjourned.

GRANDFATHER.
Written by Ed. W. Walker in January 24
1901. Revised.

First grandfather's hands were such silver
friction heads rolling on long and as well
knives the children, great and handsome.
And grandfather's feet were such silver
friction heads rolling on long and as well
knives the children, great and handsome.
And grandfather's feet were such silver
friction heads rolling on long and as well
knives the children, great and handsome.

Then they back and forth in her room of life,
And the work that she never had done there,
She found the old woman's legs of a long, well,
Some were never touched as well as of her
The corners of her fair young woman's face
Was shaded with by her own's darker hair,
But when the white hair on her face was,
Long years have from them all a glory mine.

How cheerful and happy she made her home!
Everything on smiling, well and good,
How you fit and all about her.
Beloved her never heart over and over,
The smile of her eye will bear the month,
But the smile she wears in the better land,
In the robe of love that have she worn.

Her smile in the way to be kind to a home,
Who has gone where our father's mansion be,
Her and hearts you that the sweetest one may see,
When the angel of death make you and me.

COMMISSIONERS PROCEEDINGS.

GOOD AND TIMELY ADVICE
To Those Who Are Intending to Plant
Out Fruit Stock.

EDITOR DISPATCH:
The numerous agents selling fruit stock reminds us that hundreds of dollars in orders for fruit stock are being looked for spring delivery in Crow Wing county. Have you in those selections been governed by the beauty of the colored plates and the agent's representations, or have you been governed by the advice as contained in the reports of the Minnesota Horticultural Society? Thirty years of experience is worth something to us, if it is not, better stop the experiments. An agent for an eastern nursery when asked how large a line of apples he carried replied: "Why, I have over a hundred varieties." On its list for 1900 the society gives as of the first degree of hardiness but four, namely, Duchess, Hubbard, Peterson's Charlemoff, and Patton's Greening. Of 2nd degree, four: Wealthy, Long, Field, Teletsky and Mallard. Of the promising varieties, recommended for trial, there are (11) eleven. Then follows a list of cranberries, grapes and all the small fruits. It will inform you as to the best locations, soil, etc. Apples won't grow on low mucky land. Southern slopes are not good. High land that holds the surface water is death to them,
there must be a perfect drainage.
Don't buy large trees, one or three years old are the best. You who are expecting to plant out fruit this spring get reports for last year.
You can't afford to experiment, claim you will be dissatisfied and claim that fruit can't be grown in Crow Wing county. We used to hear the same about corn, that it could not be grown in Minnesota,
and apples, no more; now Minnesota apples are noted for their beautiful, waxy transparency, (equalled by none other). Take the advice of the society, it will pay you.

Why Is It?
BRainerd Minn., March 25.
Editor Dispatch, I wish to write
The Dispatch to express a wonder that Brainerd officials should have sought to repair the flag for the memory of our noble dead, ex-President Benjamin Harrison, that the city flag was not raised in his honor until full twenty four (24) hours after the news of his death had reached the city, and then it was permitted to remain at half mast but a single day, when it was taken down and did not reappear.
Surely the flag might have been permitted to remain at half mast for our ex-President from the day of his death until after the funeral, and, if the exigencies of business at the city hall required its removal during a part of that time, it might, at least,
have been raised on the day of his funeral.

A few weeks ago when a foreign potentate, a "Divine right" queen died there seemed no lack of half to place the municipal flag at half mast,
a proceeding which I should regard as of very questionable taste. I do not consider that our American municipalities, or indeed, even the state governments, have any right to lower our flag in honor of any foreign ruler, a function which should pertain, if it pertains at all, solely to the United States Government, and,
certainly, minor officials of republican America should hesitate before going out of their way to show such honor to potentates who rule by so-called Divine right.

But, waiting that point, surely our own ex-Presidents, by virtue of the office they have held, should be entitled to as much honor as foreign rulers, and especially, one of such manly dignity, such grand statesmanship and such stalwart, true Americanism as Benjamin Harrison, was worthy of all honor which his fellow citizens could show him.

Hope you will find this communication worthy of a place in your paper. I am very truly yours,
American,
D. R. CHASE.

John C. Calhoun's Only Love Letter.
The story of John C. Calhoun's courtship of his pretty cousin is the most formal and stately chapter in the love affairs of the great statesman.
His message to her, youthful, sweet heart, which shows a stalwart effort to guard against exuberance in confessing the gentle passion, are embedded in letters to her mother—
but one. Just before their marriage Calhoun's dove seemingly would brook no more such restraint, and he wrote his dear Florida, a tender avowal, impatiently longing for the wedding day, and signed it "Your true lover, This." "The Great Nation's" first and only love letter, has recently come to light, and, incorporated in an article on Calhoun's
"young," will appear in an early issue
of the Ladies' Home Journal.

 PRIDAY, MARCH 29

The legislature will adjourn April 12th.
 Spring growth spring fingers in the lap of winter.
 Domestic postage rates have been extended to Cuba.
 Argentina has been captured again—this time for good.

Was the St. Cloud Journal Press thinking of the news when it said the Brainerd ladies were a win some lot?
 King Edward is so well satisfied with his reign, thus far that he has already applied for an increase in salary, remarks the St. Louis Globe Democrat.
 A bill has passed the house changing the election law so that a cross mark placed after a presidential candidate votes for all the electors. The bill should pass.

Jesse Lewis, of the Ramsey county district court, has decided that the board of education had the right to exclude unassociated children from the schools, thus sustaining Judge McClellan.
 The Hurd bill making the state oil inspector's office a salaried one instead of a fee office, has been passed by the legislature with an amendment making it effective Jan. 1st, 1903. The salary will be $3,500 a year.
 The Dispatch spells it "penuche"—What's the matter with "penuche," dear Dispatch?—Aren't.
 Nothing at all. Both ways are right, but Webster's dictionary gives "penuche" the preference, and Webster's is good enough for the DISPATCH.
 A bill to divide the gross earnings tax among the counties and cities of the state according to the value of railroad property they contained, was introduced into the legislature last week by Representative Laybourn, of Duluth. The idea is right and should be made a law, but it is too late to secure its passage this session.
 In another column we publish an article from the pen of G. A. Hunt, of Bay Lake, on fruit growing. Mr. Hunt is probably the most successful fruit grower in the county, and every one contemplating the growing of fruit trees should read and profit by the advice he gives. It is a very timely letter, and the Dispatch takes great pleasure in giving it its readers the benefit of it by giving it space in its columns.

The military authorities announce that the full quota of 100,000 men authorized by the army reorganization law will not be enlisted, the president deeming 70,000 all that is necessary considering the practical ending of the insurrection in the Philippines. This must be very disappointing to those Democrats who confidently predicted militarism and imperialism as the future of the country.
 Was five cities are as fortunate as Duluth in having a Whiteeman to advertise them.
 Brainerd Business College Closed.
 The Brainerd Business College will be closed today, and remained closed until the fall term in September, when Prof. Vath expects to re-open it and conduct it as heretofore. The school furniture will all remain in the school room in readiness for use in the fall. Prof. Vath conducts a college at Sauk Centre also, and he finds it necessary in order to protect his business there to give it his personal attention for some weeks making it necessary to close the Brainerd school earlier than usual.

NORMALS WIN BOTH GAMES.
 Ladies Did the Expected While Second Normals Surprised Their Admirers.
 From the St. Cloud Journal Press.
 Two very interesting games of basketball ball were given by the three hundred spectators who by the three mud and made their way to the normal gymnasium last night. The contest, that between the Brainerd ladies and normal ladies, resulted in favor of the home team by a score of 9-6. All the scoring occurred in the first half time and the progress of the crowd was very enthusiastic. The second half was more stormily contested, neither side succeeding in its attempts at goal.
 The Brainerd team was strong on defense. Their guards and centre were all good and this accounts for the small score. The team work of the normals was superior to that of Brainerd and several times a neat piece of combination resulted in a successful throw for goal.
 The game was called at 8:05 p. m. For a few minutes the contest looked uncertain. Then Miss Spjut got an open throw at goal and scored. A short time later she repeated the trick and before Brainerd saw the necessity for guarding her closely she did it for the third time, and the score was 4-0 for the normals. Then Miss Russell found the goal and Miss Spjut threw a foul and the score was 9-0. Miss Schultz now took a shot in the scoring, but her goal was disallowed because a previous foul. During the entire game Miss McGowan and Miss Langvik guarded the Brainerd forwards so closely that they made very few throws at the normal goal. The normal team was entitled to the game but even its supporters would like to see the seen Brainerd score. The team were:
 Brainerd: guard St. Cloud Brown; forward McGowan; centre Clouston; forwards Langvik; Russell; Mahlum; sub Spjut; Pierce; Peterson.
 Reference, MacArthur, Hanson, Peterson, Hinman.
 The "B" game was an exciting contest. Brainerd got right after the ball and scored early in the game. The normals made some close throws but luck was against them. The ball would circle around on the rim of the basket, then drop on the outside. Brainerd scored again and the half ended in their favor 4-0. But in the second half, the normals braved up. They played with dash and it became evident in a few minutes that they were going to win. First they scored one goal, then Peterson threw a goal, and a few minutes later another. It was 4-4 for the normals. Ford got a goal, then Brainerd evened matters and the spectators were getting excited. But here the normals guarded Larson and Smith seemed to hold the Brainerd forwards safely, while the normals forwards began to get in some team work. Ford, Peterson and Hess played a puzzling zigzag game that gave frequent throws at goal. The score kept rising as one after the other of these three men threw goals until it reached 10-6 and the game was over.
 The teams were:
 Brainerd: guard Larson; centre Smith; forward Peterson.
 Second Normals: guard Ziegler; forward Boyl; centre Smith; forward Peterson.
 Sub, Doran for Brainerd, Omas, Ziegler for normals.
 The Brainerd team returned home on the Northern Pacific this morning. They were accompanied to the station by a considerable number of normal students who wished them well in their next games. As in the previous entertainment was provided half. It was a very enjoyable affair. The Brainerd players, both men and women were a joyful lot and the normals thoroughly enjoyed their visit to the city.

Working 24 Hours a Day. There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy curing Tumor, Jaundice, Biliousness, Fever and Ague. They banish Sick Headache, drive out Malaria, never give up treatment. Small, taste nice, work wonders. Try them. 25c at McFadden Drug Co. and H. P. Dunn & Co.

Don't miss hearing the Dusenberry Orchestra Saturday night, as that alone will be worth the price of admission.

I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years. I have tried many things and spent much money for no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years. Anderson Riggs, of Sunny Lane, Tex. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. H. P. Dunn & Co.

Minstrel's Minstrel. They cometh. They cometh numerously. They bringeth their families. Also their relatives. And their friends. Likewise their mother-in-laws. And their friends. And they are legion. And they spread over the land. And there is no place where they are not.

They devour the fragrant onion sprout. The glorious minstrel cometh from far and near, with the glorious orb of day sinks in, the splendid of his evening song.

They cometh from the land of sunshine; whence cometh many things that are good. Several of them. And he is good. He cometh in the early spring days.

In the evening twilight. Verily I may unto you, he sitteth upon his throne, and saith the gladsome song: "I will not be discouraged. When at last the curtain falls Where is he?"

Alas, he is not there. He searcheth and is no more. Chorus Chorus. Episcopal Church.
