From the N.Y. Evening Post. A SONG OF SPANISH GLORY. BY WILLIAM O. STROUD.

Caught on the sea and shot on the shore! Santa Maria, that was your name...

Blood has dropped like a tropic rain Over the long path worn by the feet of Spain...

Caught on the sea and shot on the shore! Santa Maria, that was your name...

Caught on the sea and shot on the shore! Santa Maria, that was your name...

Blood has dropped like a tropic rain Over the long path worn by the feet of Spain...

Caught on the sea and shot on the shore! Santa Maria, that was your name...
