

BRAINERD

TRIBUNE

VOL. V.—NO. 23.

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1876.

WHOLE NO. 231.

BRAINERD TRIBUNE, PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, BY W. W. HARTLEY, Editor and Prop'r.

Church Directory. EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Rev. Frank R. Milneson, Pastor. Services every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

L. O. O. F. WILFREY LODGE, No. 37, meets every Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. at Union Hall.

Jewelry, Silver Ware, WATCHES, CLOCKS, AND SPECTACLES.

Headquarters Hotel, BRAINERD, MINN. E. W. WEED, Proprietor.

MEAT MARKET, COR. SIXTH AND LAUREL STS.

J. L. STARCHER, Dealer in GROCERIES!

Physician and Surgeon, DR. J. C. ROSSER, Office at Headquarters Hotel.

Attorney at Law, C. B. SLEEPER, FRONT STREET, BRAINERD, MINN.

County Auditor, F. X. GOULET, Crow Wing and Cass Counties, and Town Clerk of Town of Brainerd.

DRESSMAKER, MRS. EMMA E. FRENCH, Laurel St., Brainerd, Minn.

Meat Market, NORTHWESTERN Meat Market, FIFTH STREET.

Merchant Tailor, C. MEYER & CO., 115 EAST SEVENTH STREET.

EBER H. BLY, 1776 CENTENNIAL 1876. DEALER IN GROCERIES & PROVISIONS, AND Manufacturer and Dealer in Lumber & Shingles.

Leland House, BRAINERD, MINN. W. H. LELAND, Prop'r. THIS House, having recently changed hands, has been renovated and put in First-Class shape.

LAMONT & WILSON, DEALERS IN Groceries and Provisions, Wines, Liquors & Cigars, COR. SIXTH AND LAUREL STS., BRAINERD, MINN.

DRUG STORE, Front Street, bet. Fifth and Sixth, N. McFADDEN, Proprietor.

NEW BARBER SHOP, On Laurel St., next door to Starcher's, Hair Cutting, Shaving and Shampooing neatly done.

Wells! Wells!! JOHN BATZOLD, WELL DIGGER, DESIRES to inform the people of Brainerd that he is prepared to dig, clean or repair wells.

HINCKLEY HOUSE, On the L. S. & M. R. R., AND rehabilitated the Dining Hall for the better.

THE TRIBUNE SALES-ROOM COLUMN. NEW EXCELSIOR LAWN MOWERS for sale.

DR. FOOT'S PLAIN HOME TALK, DR. MEDICAL COMMON SENSE, for sale at $2.00 per copy.

ONE YEAR'S SCHOLARSHIP AT THE MR. CARROLL SEMINARY, (advertised in another column) covering the cost of boarding, furnishing, room, tuition in English, Latin, Vocal Music and Gymnastics.

ONE YEAR'S SCHOLARSHIP AT THE MR. CARROLL SEMINARY, (advertised in another column) covering the cost of boarding, furnishing, room, tuition in English, Latin, Vocal Music and Gymnastics.

ONE YEAR'S SCHOLARSHIP AT THE MR. CARROLL SEMINARY, (advertised in another column) covering the cost of boarding, furnishing, room, tuition in English, Latin, Vocal Music and Gymnastics.

ONE YEAR'S SCHOLARSHIP AT THE MR. CARROLL SEMINARY, (advertised in another column) covering the cost of boarding, furnishing, room, tuition in English, Latin, Vocal Music and Gymnastics.

ONE YEAR'S SCHOLARSHIP AT THE MR. CARROLL SEMINARY, (advertised in another column) covering the cost of boarding, furnishing, room, tuition in English, Latin, Vocal Music and Gymnastics.

Republican Ticket. For President, GOV. RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, Of Ohio. For Vice-President, HON. WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Of New York.

DR. J. H. STEWART FOR CONGRESS. The reports from the various counties in this district grow more and more flattering every day.

STEWART. 1 Clay, 2 Anoka, 4 Hennepin, 10 Becker, 3 Meeker, 1 Bigstone, 2 Cass, 2 Carlton, 2 Crow Wing, 1 Meeker, 1 Pine, 1 Ramsey, 12 St. Louis, 3 Stevens, 1 Wadena, 1 Wright. Total, 43. Butler, 2 Hennepin, 10 Meeker, 1 Bigstone, 2 Cass, 2 Carlton, 2 Crow Wing, 1 Meeker, 1 Pine, 1 Ramsey, 12 St. Louis, 3 Stevens, 1 Wadena, 1 Wright. Total, 21.

THE INDIAN QUESTION. To a casual observer, the present attitude of the army on the frontier, confronted by the hostile Sioux and their allies, elated by success in the repulsion of Gen. Crooks and the terrible defeat and tragic death of Gen. Custer and his gallant Seventh, would indicate that the Indian question was speedily resolving itself to a focus, and would soon be settled forever.

WADENA. Brother Hartley—So you was expecting your Wadena end to write of our glorious Fourth. Now that was just what we thought of yourself.

Proceedings of the Republican County Convention. Pursuant to call, the Republican voters of this county met in mass convention at Bly's Hall, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of electing one delegate to attend the District Convention at St. Paul on the 19th inst., and was called to order by W. W. Hartley, of the County Committee.

THE PIONEER PRESS AND TRIBUNE comes to us now changed in shape, the pages being cut and pasted at the back, rendering it much more convenient and desirable.

MARK H. KELLGROG, the newspaper correspondent killed with Custer's expedition on the 25th ult., was once a resident at Brainerd.

ST. CLAIR, Ia., July 12.—Agency Indians along the upper Missouri who have received the account of Custer's fight through some hostiles who took part in it, say Custer shot three Indians with his pistol and killed three others with his sword when he fell, shot through the head by Rain-in-the-face, a chief whom Custer had forcibly arrested some time ago for murder.

ABOUT one hundred tons of Black Hills supplies have been purchased by Bismarck merchants at Yankton and Sioux City within the past six weeks.

THE INDIANS lost 70 killed, among them many noted chiefs; the fight was hand to hand. The Indians say they did not fear pistols as much as sabres. They are nearly out of ammunition, and will not fight again until they get a supply from the agencies.

THE INDIAN is as able to work and earn his living as the white man, then why is he supported? If supported, why is he armed? He has a reservation and the government feeds him, then why is he permitted to roam in idleness, gypsy-like, over the country, frightening women and children, even though he does nothing worse? If he is to be fed, shut him up and let him eat, and let the people have peace.

Don't use Soda—Nor any of the common kinds of Saleratus in making bread, if you value health, and desire to have bread that is palatable. Always use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus and you will have a pure article. It may be had at the grocers.

De Land's celebrated Saleratus for sale at LAMONT & WILSON'S.

WADENA. Brother Hartley—So you was expecting your Wadena end to write of our glorious Fourth. Now that was just what we thought of yourself.

Proceedings of the Republican County Convention. Pursuant to call, the Republican voters of this county met in mass convention at Bly's Hall, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of electing one delegate to attend the District Convention at St. Paul on the 19th inst., and was called to order by W. W. Hartley, of the County Committee.

THE PIONEER PRESS AND TRIBUNE comes to us now changed in shape, the pages being cut and pasted at the back, rendering it much more convenient and desirable.

MARK H. KELLGROG, the newspaper correspondent killed with Custer's expedition on the 25th ult., was once a resident at Brainerd.

ST. CLAIR, Ia., July 12.—Agency Indians along the upper Missouri who have received the account of Custer's fight through some hostiles who took part in it, say Custer shot three Indians with his pistol and killed three others with his sword when he fell, shot through the head by Rain-in-the-face, a chief whom Custer had forcibly arrested some time ago for murder.

ABOUT one hundred tons of Black Hills supplies have been purchased by Bismarck merchants at Yankton and Sioux City within the past six weeks.

THE INDIANS lost 70 killed, among them many noted chiefs; the fight was hand to hand. The Indians say they did not fear pistols as much as sabres. They are nearly out of ammunition, and will not fight again until they get a supply from the agencies.

THE INDIAN is as able to work and earn his living as the white man, then why is he supported? If supported, why is he armed? He has a reservation and the government feeds him, then why is he permitted to roam in idleness, gypsy-like, over the country, frightening women and children, even though he does nothing worse? If he is to be fed, shut him up and let him eat, and let the people have peace.

Don't use Soda—Nor any of the common kinds of Saleratus in making bread, if you value health, and desire to have bread that is palatable. Always use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus and you will have a pure article. It may be had at the grocers.

De Land's celebrated Saleratus for sale at LAMONT & WILSON'S.

WADENA. Brother Hartley—So you was expecting your Wadena end to write of our glorious Fourth. Now that was just what we thought of yourself.

Proceedings of the Republican County Convention. Pursuant to call, the Republican voters of this county met in mass convention at Bly's Hall, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of electing one delegate to attend the District Convention at St. Paul on the 19th inst., and was called to order by W. W. Hartley, of the County Committee.

THE PIONEER PRESS AND TRIBUNE comes to us now changed in shape, the pages being cut and pasted at the back, rendering it much more convenient and desirable.

MARK H. KELLGROG, the newspaper correspondent killed with Custer's expedition on the 25th ult., was once a resident at Brainerd.

ST. CLAIR, Ia., July 12.—Agency Indians along the upper Missouri who have received the account of Custer's fight through some hostiles who took part in it, say Custer shot three Indians with his pistol and killed three others with his sword when he fell, shot through the head by Rain-in-the-face, a chief whom Custer had forcibly arrested some time ago for murder.

ABOUT one hundred tons of Black Hills supplies have been purchased by Bismarck merchants at Yankton and Sioux City within the past six weeks.

THE INDIANS lost 70 killed, among them many noted chiefs; the fight was hand to hand. The Indians say they did not fear pistols as much as sabres. They are nearly out of ammunition, and will not fight again until they get a supply from the agencies.

THE INDIAN is as able to work and earn his living as the white man, then why is he supported? If supported, why is he armed? He has a reservation and the government feeds him, then why is he permitted to roam in idleness, gypsy-like, over the country, frightening women and children, even though he does nothing worse? If he is to be fed, shut him up and let him eat, and let the people have peace.

Don't use Soda—Nor any of the common kinds of Saleratus in making bread, if you value health, and desire to have bread that is palatable. Always use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus and you will have a pure article. It may be had at the grocers.

De Land's celebrated Saleratus for sale at LAMONT & WILSON'S.

WADENA. Brother Hartley—So you was expecting your Wadena end to write of our glorious Fourth. Now that was just what we thought of yourself.

Proceedings of the Republican County Convention. Pursuant to call, the Republican voters of this county met in mass convention at Bly's Hall, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of electing one delegate to attend the District Convention at St. Paul on the 19th inst., and was called to order by W. W. Hartley, of the County Committee.

THE PIONEER PRESS AND TRIBUNE comes to us now changed in shape, the pages being cut and pasted at the back, rendering it much more convenient and desirable.

MARK H. KELLGROG, the newspaper correspondent killed with Custer's expedition on the 25th ult., was once a resident at Brainerd.

ST. CLAIR, Ia., July 12.—Agency Indians along the upper Missouri who have received the account of Custer's fight through some hostiles who took part in it, say Custer shot three Indians with his pistol and killed three others with his sword when he fell, shot through the head by Rain-in-the-face, a chief whom Custer had forcibly arrested some time ago for murder.

ABOUT one hundred tons of Black Hills supplies have been purchased by Bismarck merchants at Yankton and Sioux City within the past six weeks.

THE INDIANS lost 70 killed, among them many noted chiefs; the fight was hand to hand. The Indians say they did not fear pistols as much as sabres. They are nearly out of ammunition, and will not fight again until they get a supply from the agencies.

THE INDIAN is as able to work and earn his living as the white man, then why is he supported? If supported, why is he armed? He has a reservation and the government feeds him, then why is he permitted to roam in idleness, gypsy-like, over the country, frightening women and children, even though he does nothing worse? If he is to be fed, shut him up and let him eat, and let the people have peace.

Don't use Soda—Nor any of the common kinds of Saleratus in making bread, if you value health, and desire to have bread that is palatable. Always use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus and you will have a pure article. It may be had at the grocers.

De Land's celebrated Saleratus for sale at LAMONT & WILSON'S.

BUSINESS NOTICE. Rates of Advertising will be made known on application at this office or by letter. No notice would suit all cases.

Glass fruit jars at CURRIER'S. Beautiful chromos for sale cheap at the Book Store.

FOR FINE FURNISHING GOODS, go to H. A. Campbell's. NORTHERN Pacific Bonds for sale, L. P. WATSON.

DRY ELAB WOOD for sale. Apply at L. C. CURRIER'S STORE. COUNTY TREASURER McFadden paid this week the interest coupons for 1876 on the Cass and Crow Wing County Bonds.

CARR, at U. S. Express office for California Peas, Oranges, Lemons, Apples, Cranberries, Dates and Figs. An omission occurred last week in Mr. W. Bean's "for sale" notice, that will be found corrected this week.

MA. S. C. TENNIS has our thanks for a fine mess of green cucumbers of good size and excellent flavor, raised on his farm in West Brainerd. ACCIDENT Insurance Tickets for sale at this office at 25 cents per day, or $5.00 for 30 days for $30.00.

THE Rev. Mr. Dunlap, from St. Louis, in the Diocese of Missouri, visits the Rector of St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church. He will be with him on Sunday and preach at the morning service. I AM prepared to take orders for Boxes of any American make and deliver same in Brainerd at manufacturer's prices.

A LITTLE girl of Thos. C. Fernald, of West Brainerd, accidentally upset a teapot full of hot tea into her neck and breast, badly scalding her neck, right shoulder, arm and breast. Fortunately, though a great sufferer, she is not fatally injured. A LARGE party left Brainerd this week, by rail, for the Black Hills, via Bismarck, with a large amount of supplies and several teams of oxen. Among them were Milton Askew, J. McElroy, J. Burne, E. B. Morton and J. Bertrand. They return rich.

ONE of the prettiest gardens in town is to be seen at the residence of our friend E. L. STRAUSS. Some rare roses and beautiful plants adorn the grounds, which are tastefully laid out and rendered additionally attractive by the warble of numerous Canaries and the delicately sweet aroma of the flowers and grasses. WE publish this week in another column, the detailed statement of the indebtedness of the County of Cass, as required by the act of last winter disorganizing that county. The amount of time required to prepare it for the press, and the room it occupies precludes the usual amount of reading matter, and several articles of interest have been crowded out.

I wish to respectfully announce to the people of Brainerd, that I have bought H. A. Campbell's shoemaker's stock in trade, and opened a shop in the building formerly occupied by E. L. Strauss, on Fifth Street, opposite the Postoffice, where I will be ready to do all work in my line as heretofore with Mr. Campbell, at reasonable rates. Give me a trial, if you please. JAMES BAIN. At Brainerd, on Friday morning the 13th inst., at 6:30 o'clock, Thomas Alfred, son of Thomas and Eliza Basen, aged one year, five months and eight days. The little fellow was in good health on Thursday afternoon, was taken Thursday night with convulsions from teething, and died on Friday morning. Great sympathy with the suddenly bereaved parents is felt in the community. Funeral services will take place tomorrow (Sunday) morning at the M. E. Church, at 11 o'clock, Surmon by Rev. B. M. Smith. At Fort Randall, D. T., on the 3rd inst., Mrs. A. Siebrink, daughter of D. McArthur, of Crow Wing.

FOR SALE—Store-house and Lot, of Laurel Street, occupied by me. If not sold by the 15th of September, will rent. Apply to J. L. STARCHER, Brainerd, Minn. DONALE-A Prairie Farm on the Sauk Rapids & Brainerd Branch R. R., containing about 40 acres of the meadow land and 100 acres of good tillable land, within half mile of the Crow Wing station on said road. Price $350 cash. Apply to W. BEANE, BRAINERD, June 26th, 1876.

SUMMARY OF THE NEWS.

Crimes, Criminals and Casualties.
A negro is before the court in Atlanta, Ga., for bigamy.
Twenty-four sheep in a flock of 50 in Monroe county, Iowa, were killed by lightning.
An unknown insane man killed a well known citizen of New York, named James St. Clair, on the night of the 3d.
The propeller St. Clair, plying between Duluth and south shore points, burned on the 10th, and 27 lives are reported lost.
Alexander Sleetor, of Marengo, Iowa, committed suicide, Wednesday, by hanging. Grief for the loss of a favorite child is alleged as the reason for the rash act.
A woman in Newburgh, N. Y., wrapped herself in a cloth saturated with kerosene to curb rheumatism, when it took fire and she was burned to death.
A boy named Stanley Terry, living near Gairs, as playing with a metallic cartridge when it exploded, the ball entering his head through his mouth, killing him instantly.
A party of highwaymen stopped a train on the Missouri Pacific railroad, west of Jefferson City, and by intimidating train men and passengers, who could not see their numbers outside and in, for the darkness, robbed the express cases of twelve or fifteen thousand dollars and left. The whole country immediately surrounded the locality of the robbery, look arms and started in pursuit, but the outlaws being masked there is little hope of capturing them as no one can identify them.
Personal, Impersonal and Political.
There is scarcely a quorum left in the House during the proceedings in the Belknap impeachment trial.
Gen. Sheridan tells Gen. Sherman that he thinks "pretense to think of asking for volunteer cavalry."
Mrs. Ellen Thole, of Winona, has received a thousand dollars from the Drains as insurance on her husband's life.
Henry Clews has again commenced business in New York as a banker. The house is Livermore, Clews & Co.
A rumor last week gained extensive circulation that Gen. Crook and his command had been massacred, but the tale was soon disputed.
Hungry and impudent tramps annoy northern Iowa. The people are almost entirely devoid of shot-guns and law as to the best method of getting rid of them.
General Marshall Lefferts, while on the way to Philadelphia, on the 31st, with the veteran corps of the 7th regiment, suddenly died, and the whole regiment returned home with his body.
Hon. Edmund Young Parsons, member of Congress from the Louisville district, in Kentucky, died in Washington on the 28th. He was a prominent lawyer, and son of a well-known Methodist divine.
The heirs of Conductor Locke, who was killed about one year since on the Sioux City and Pacific railroad, near the former place, have been awarded $7,000 damages by the Harrison county circuit court.
In the heat of discussion in the House, on the 10th, Mr. Foster gave Mr. Singleton the lie, whereupon Singleton said more could be said about that after a while. Soon after Foster withdrew the offensive language and Singleton expressed himself satisfied.
Joseph Daly, 76 years old, residing in Philadelphia, attempted to kindle a fire, by pouring coal oil into his stove. An explosion took place and the unfortunate man was horribly burned about the body and face, the flesh coming off the bones in some places. His recovery is very doubtful.
Miscellaneous News Items.
The Kludive has furnished the water 12,000 meq.
Delavan, Wis., is to have a new chemical fire engine, to cost $2,000.
Grasshoppers have appeared in the cotton-belt in Polk county, Georgia.
Officers of the Des Moines and Fort Dodge regts are prospecting a branch from Dallas Centre to Guthrie Centre, Va. Panora.
One day last week a loaded freight car became detached from its train at Delmar, Iowa, and did not come to rest until it reached Delhi, ten miles distant.
The new postal regulations embraced in the appropriation bill just passed by Congress, does not change the existing law regarding the circulation of county newspapers.
The admissions to the Centennial exposition on the 7th, numbered 52,024, of which 46,051 were paid. The whole number of visitors since the opening had been 1,062, 064.
Fourth of July accidents were rather more numerous than usual this year. The supply of new arms, fuses, fuses, toes and heads required to mend the losses, is somewhat astonishing.
The Servians seem to be getting the worst of the bargain, being beaten at every point, if reports can be credited. They are already short of funds and have resorted to forced paper currency.
The San Domingo authorities allowed a man who had come to that island under protection of the United States flag to be taken off by force. The mob fired upon the U. S. vessel and tore down the flag.
The 6th, 7th and 8th insts. will long be remembered for their torrid heat, from Maine to California. In Philadelphia, Washington, New York, and other eastern cities, hundreds of deaths occurred from sunstroke.
The Servians crossed the Turkish frontier at three points, on the 2d, and simultaneously the prince of Montenegro led his army into Herzegovina. A perfect agreement had been established between the two principalities.
Private advices from Bucharest indicate that within the last fortnight Russia has sent considerable reinforcements to Bessarabia. Russian troops are concentrating near Agram, in Croatia, and reinforcements have been ordered to Dalmatia.
The war in Turkey is now in full blast. The principal European powers have determined to form a ring and let the show go on. The Servians were defeated in the first engagement with the Turks, leaving 700 dead on the field of battle.
The centennial celebrations throughout the whole country were on a scale much beyond the greatest expectations of the most patriotic. The procession in St. Paul was several miles in length and was the most magnificent affair ever witnessed in the northwest.
Two brothers named Richardson, of Dundee, Mich., went hunting on the 4th. When they separated Thomas shot a bird and got into a tree to secure it, when William came up. Hearing something in the tree he shot into the moving leaves and was horrified to see his brother fall to the ground, dead.

There are at present in the army 26,770 troops, located as follows: 4,916 belonging to detachments at West Point; 7,906 belonging to the territories; 3,718 in Texas; 3,354 in other southern States, while in the field of operations against the Indians there are only 9,151. The remaining 4000 are located in northern cities and forts.
The conference committee of the Senate and House finally agreed to a postal appropriation bill which fixes the rate of postage on all third-class matter except unsent circulars at one cent for every two ounces, or fraction thereof, and the sender may write his name on the outside, preceded by the word "free," and may write briefly, or print on any package, the number and name of articles enclosed.
The death of Martin Schuster, a wealthy hotel proprietor of Brooklyn, from hydrophobia, was a terrible affair. Schuster was bitten ten weeks ago by a large bloodhound. On Sunday afternoon he began to complain of dull pains in the back that gradually moved upward to his head, when they became acute. He experienced difficulty in breathing, and a hoarse croak grew like a dog. His salivary glands swelled and in anguish and frenzy he attempted to bite one of his children and fought the doctor like a demon.
The Markets.
The Spring shipments of the "Minnesota" grade of wheat have been disastrous to the export rate here. Reports of damaged fields and the consequent unfavorable prospects for the coming crop, however, have had a stimulating effect on prices which has prevented anything like a panic. Nothing can revive the reputation of the "Minnesota" grade which has been lost by the poor crop of last year's crop after the storms, but rigid attention to every farmer and all owners of small warehouses, to keep in the best possible condition the grain of the coming harvest. This reputation, but lately acknowledged, is worth from three to five cents per bushel, and for an average crop would yield the region in Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin which produces it, over three millions of dollars. The closing price in New York, 81c; in Chicago, 81.63; in Milwaukee, 81.01; in St. Paul, 80c.
CONGRESSIONAL.
The Senate, on the 3d, resumed consideration of the bill for the payment of Pinchback's salary from March 3, 1872, till the termination of his contest for a seat in the United States Senate, which was referred to the committee in Mississippi being carried by the "shot-gun argument." Mr. Bayard, who was a member of the committee of investigation, stated that when the time came for making the report it would be seen whether the shot-gun argument lay; that the blacks were the aggressors. Mr. Milligan, of Minnesota, also one of the committee, said the report would show that in 1875 armed bodies of white men prepared to carry the election, and that the negroes of black men would not vote unless the Senate, but the whole country; that the slaughter of blacks was never equaled before, and that the election of 1876 was characterized by the same tactics that the records would bear out his statement.
In the House no business was done except filibustering to prevent the introduction of a bill for the repeal of the resumption act.
On the 5th the Senate passed the bill to prevent "straw bidding" in the postoffice department. Senator Sherman introduced a concurrent resolution that the United States assume the direction and completion of the Washington monument. It was passed by a vote of 16 yeas and 16 nays. The resolution to pay Pinchback for expenses of his contest as salary as heretofore reported, was passed by a strict party vote.
The House concurred in the bill against mailing obscene matter. The conference report on the postoffice bill was agreed to. Pending discussion of the Geneva award bill the House adjourned.
The Senate, on the 6th, appointed a committee to investigate the Chinese question and report at the next session of Congress. The Belknap impeachment trial was re-opened, and after an address by Mr. Lynde, on the part of Belknap, several witnesses were called in to testify. The contract between Marshall and the Secretary was shown and identified by the attorney who "put it in legal shape" by the witness.
The House had a short session but transacted no business of importance.
The Senate before sitting as a court of impeachment, on the 7th inst., had a discussion on the pending discussion on the attitude of the House towards the appropriation bills. Mr. Morrill charged the House with improper motives and said the government already agreed to the Senate would result in large deficiency bills for the year. Mr. Morton appealed to the Senate to take up the House bill for equalizing soldiers' benefits, for if they yielded it would be the end of the government by two houses. Mr. Thurston replied to the speakers with great warmth. Mr. Logan coincided with Morrill in his remarks and characterized the action of the House as combining nullification and resolution. New conference committees were appointed on the legislative and sundry civil bills. Mr. Lynde made a charge against both. The political disabilities of Gen. Belknap were removed. Several witnesses were examined by the Senate as a court of impeachment. The House, after discussion, passed the bill requiring the Pacific railway to create a sinking fund, and adjourned.
On the 8th, the Senate passed a bill extending for a year the act recently passed to provide temporarily for the expenses of the government. Mr. Logan moved to take up the House bill for equalizing soldiers' benefits, for if they yielded it would be the end of the government by two houses. Mr. Thurston replied to the speakers with great warmth. Mr. Logan coincided with Morrill in his remarks and characterized the action of the House as combining nullification and resolution. New conference committees were appointed on the legislative and sundry civil bills. Mr. Lynde made a charge against both. The political disabilities of Gen. Belknap were removed. Several witnesses were examined by the Senate as a court of impeachment. The House, after discussion, passed the bill requiring the Pacific railway to create a sinking fund, and adjourned.
On the 8th, the Senate passed a bill extending for a year the act recently passed to provide temporarily for the expenses of the government. Mr. Logan moved to take up the House bill for equalizing soldiers' benefits, for if they yielded it would be the end of the government by two houses. Mr. Thurston replied to the speakers with great warmth. Mr. Logan coincided with Morrill in his remarks and characterized the action of the House as combining nullification and resolution. New conference committees were appointed on the legislative and sundry civil bills. Mr. Lynde made a charge against both. The political disabilities of Gen. Belknap were removed. Several witnesses were examined by the Senate as a court of impeachment. The House, after discussion, passed the bill requiring the Pacific railway to create a sinking fund, and adjourned.

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

THE FATE OF CUSTER.

Blood-curdling Accounts of the Gallant General's Last Fight.
A correspondent with General Terry's command on the Big Horn says: "At noon on the 23d day of June, General Custer, at the head of his fine regiment of twelve veteran companies, left camp at the mouth of the Rosebud, to follow the trail of a very large band of hostile Sioux, leading up the river, and westward in the direction of the Big Horn. The signs indicated that the Indians were making for the eastern branch of the last named river, marked on the map as the Little Big Horn."
"At the same time General Terry, with Gibbon's command of five companies of infantry, four of cavalry, and the Gatling battery, started to ascend the Big Horn, aiming to assail the enemy in the rear. The march of the two columns was so planned as to bring Gibbon's command within cooperating distance of the anticipated scene of action by the evening of the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overtaking the Indians on the 25th. In this way only could the infantry be made available, as it would not do to encumber Custer's march with foot troops."
Gibbon's command, on the first day marched thirty-five miles to the mouth of the Little Big Horn, in the hopes of overt

NOBODY!

Left these nobody's daughter,
Child to die and name,
Not only ever taught her
A mother's sweet, saving name.

upon our naked forms until on or about the 27th of March, 1865, when the gates swung open for our deliverance.

LA DAME BLANCHE.

From "The Land and Meer," by E. Vachon.
The dual residence of Gerolstein is situated in the bottom of a charming valley; it is neither big nor noisy; and all its streets converge to the dual castle, the most beautiful building of the residence—statey and grand-built in the most ceremonious rococo style a la Versailles. Pleasant walks lead from the castle to the parks outside of the city. Close to the castle stands the also magnificent but more modern palace of the Countess of San-ran, who has been by marriage the wife of the late Duke Ernest and borne him two sons, who were brought up as Counts of Sanran, and appointed to high offices at Court.
They had no claim to the succession,
since from the first right-handed marriage of the late Duke with a Princess of Memigen issued the Crown Prince Franciscus, now reigning as Duke Franciscus XIV. It is true he was sickly, in consequence of the fatigue caused by his studious sojourns in Paris and Italy; but the succession was provided for by the Duke's will, and his wife, the handsome Countess Helena, Princess Luitinggen Hallerstein, had borne him a Prince, who was named Erne, after his grandfather. The little baby, the future Duke of Gerolstein, was thriving exceedingly well. He was as healthy as a gold-fish in the pond, and as fresh as a rosebud in summer. His illustrious mother was radiant with happiness and, although still a little weak, she would not let the child from her arms all day long,
and gave it a thousand sweet names.

A BIG SHOW

The Fourth of July was a great day here, and had Philadelphia been prepared to take a census the showing would undoubtedly have astonished the world. But such an immense crowd is an effectual bar to enjoyment. To see the exhibition visitors want a clear field, and the smaller the attendance
the better the opportunities for seeing.
Crowds of people may be seen on a thousand days in a lifetime, but an exhibition such as this one in Fairmont Park may not again be attempted in America in a half century. Among the curiosities to be seen are the REVOLUTIONARY RELICS.

The buildings are full of them, personal and general. Of individual articles there is an immense collection of portraits, domestic utensils, garments and valuable ornaments. In general, there are public documents, and trophies by those whose bumps of reverence are prominently developed with feelings, not of interest solely, but veneration. "That was Washington's sword, or that Lafayette's watch." I tried on Daniel Webster's hat in the room of the historical society. It fitted, and I was told that but few men could wear Webster's chapeau. Felt my head swelling with conscious pride, but my feathers fell at the remark of an innocent companion who incidentally said: "One of the biggest jackasses he ever knew in human shape wore a 3-4 hat like the one you are wearing."
The fear of "the gastric juices" I wrote daily on a table used by Washington. Everybody is hunting relics, and the streets are filled with relic-mongers of cane from this old structure; medals of this or that hero, Philadelphia to-day is the Mecca, and the shadows of the past, sure to attract the votaries of the past, to their shrines who in homage pay their offerings to valor, patriotism, honesty and virtue. However, let us not forget the present, an instructive teacher for the future, "and we may be happy yet."

But to me a Western farmer, nothing takes my eye so much as the collectors of Agricultural and Machinery Halls. I saw to-day
A NEW PLOW,
that was worth special attention. It is a grand and successful deviation from the old point share, mold-board style, in use for the past two or three centuries. And it is gratifying to a Western man to notice that the grand and successful deviation from the old ideas of plow-making comes from his section of the country.
It has two large circular discs, concave in form, one placed behind and a little to the side of the other, the distinguishing features of the invention. The great and heavy iron perfect furrows, pulverizing the soil completely, and the plow with two horses attached does more and better work than can be achieved with any other kind of plow having double the number of horses to pull it. Practical exhibitions and tests are given here continually, and in a manner in which this implement cuts its way through the toughest, roughest of soil, and the rapidity with which it dispatches its work, satisfies all spectators that it is the crowning triumph of plow invention.

Let the material used be double Berlin zephyr, the Berlin wool being much better than merino manufacture. Make the center stripe white, forty-one stitches wide, using the attached stitch, and work from right to left. On each side of the white center stripe a red twenty-three stitches wide, then a black stripe eighteen stitches wide, then a green and buff stripe twenty-two stitches wide, then again a black stripe, and finally a buff stripe with a blue and purple stripe twenty-two stitches wide. When finished, it will be very prettily arranged.
To the right of center the colors will be red, black, buff, black, and purple;
to the left of center, red, black, green,
black, and buff.

So much for the stripes, and now for the embroidery of the center stripe. In the center of stripe place a magnolia rose, with green leaves on each side, next a red rose (green leaves), next a pink rose (green leaves), next a pink star flower. Remember the flowers are worked each way from the center; thus the flowers like the stripes, will not be the same on both sides. Embroider all the black stripes together with shaded buff.
Finish the sides with buff fringe; tie the fringe 2-2 inches deep, and, when tied, the length of fringe 9 inches. End fringe same as stripes.
Whole length of Afghan when done, 2 yard 12 inches; width, 1 yard 23 inches.

Contents of a Boy's Pocket.

From a School Teacher's Letter.
A noise over the breaking the silence of the school-room, the offender was swiftly brought to justice and his spoil confiscated. Another minute, and another noise from the same delinquent
—this time a pin. Reflecting that this "commodity" might be useful in his case, I desired Master George to bring me all he had, and reluctantly there was poured out such an endless stream of treasures that I dispatched an assistant for the saucer of a flower pot in which to place them. A list is in order:
A rubber ball gnawed at one side,
four yards of twine, three peewees, two slates pencils, a piece of soap, a copper, six board nails, a pickle, a fishhook, a bun, a letter which had once been pink, but now alas! five lozenges, a top, a doll's boot with the handle in it; a gold stud weepingly confessed to be "My mummy's," a patent lock, key attached; a piece of gum with tooth impressions, a leaf of a speller round a treacherous piece of tin; two kite knobs, a scissor, a watch key, a pipe-bowl, colored and scented after the finest equireurian style, a shoe-string,
a whistle, four scarlet beans, a lach doll, two bobbins, an Irishman's jackknife, a lamp-wick, three pieces of rainbow coal, five jackstones, a photograph, a tassel ring, a skilleg, a metal toe, a rabbit's tail.
Total 65!

Powdered white lillibore is, as we have frequently stated, a complete and thorough exterminator of the currant worm; it may be dusted over the leaves when the dew is on, or may be stirred with water and applied with a syringe.

THE VIBRATOR

1000 SOLD LAST SEASON
WITHOUT ONE FAILURE OR DEFLECTION
This is the famous Thrashing machine that has swept the field and created such a revolution in the trade as to displace Great Britain and Texas.
No principles.

MUSTANG LINIMENT

WHICH HAS STOOD THE TEST OF 40
YEARS. THE BEST REMEDY FOR ALL
RHEUMATISM, BRUISES, SWELLINGS,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE JOINTS.
APPLIED TO THE SPINE, IT CURES
THE MOST PAINFUL AND OBSTINATE
HEADACHE. IT IS THE ONLY REMEDY
FOR THE LIFE OF A HUMAN BEING, AND
IS THE ONLY ONE THAT CAN BE RELIED UPON IN ALL EMERGENCIES.

$25 & $50 PER DAY

Well Auger

WE MEAN IT!
And are prepared to demonstrate the fact.
OUR AUGERS are operated entirely by HOUSE POWER, and will bore at the rate
of 20 FEET PER HOUR. They bore
3 TO 6 FEET IF DIAMETER,
AND ANY DEPTH REQUIRED. They will
bore in any soil.

P. R. L. HARDENBERG

Leather & Findings

THE THRESHER OF THE DAY

Metropolitan Hotel

J. D. Kaestner

THE MINNESOTA CHIEF!!!

so I might give scores of remarks said about your preparations. A clored woman was using your Discovery, and after taking three bottles was completely cured. She, being in the store, said to me, "I don't want no doctors' round me so long as I can get the Discovery; it beats all your doctors." And so I might say.

I am, most respectfully, yours,
ATHA B. UROOKS.

SCHEENK'S SEA WEED TONIC.—In the atmosphere experienced here during the summer months, the lethargy produced by the heat takes away the desire for wholesome food, and frequent perspiration reduces bodily energy, particularly those suffering from the effects of debilitating diseases. In order to keep a natural healthy activity of the system, we must resort to artificial means. For this purpose Scheenk's Sea Weed Tonic is very effective. A few doses will create an appetite and give fresh vigor to the enervated body. Dyspepsia, indigestion, and many other ailments are permanently cured by the use of this Tonic. Its nature is totally different from such drugs. It contains no corrosive minerals or acids; in fact it assists the regular operations of nature, and supplies her deficiencies. The tonic in nature so much resembles the gastric juice that it is almost identical with that fluid.
The gastric juice is the natural solvent which,
in a healthy condition of the body, causes the food to be digested; and when this juice is not excreted in sufficient quantities, indigestion, with all its distressing symptoms, follows. The Sea Weed Tonic performs the duty of the gastric juice when the latter is deficient.
Scheenk's Sea Weed Tonic sold by all Druggists.

Pimples on the face, rough skin,
chapped hands, salt-rheum, and all cutaneous affections cured by this Tonic. It is soft and smooth, by the use of Juniper Tar Soap.
That made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, is the best. It is a certain cure for all eruptions of the skin, and is sold on hand as there are many imitations, made from common tar, which are worthless.

If I was a young lady and had a delicate, pale, sickly complexion, I should take Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cord-and Blood Purifier. It imparts vigor, strength, health, and purifies the blood. Dr.
J. H. McLean's office, St. Louis, Mo.

The cathartics used and approved by the physicians comprising the various medical associations of this country are now compounded and sold under the name of Parsons' Purgative Pills.

Order your shirts, socks, ties, gloves,
and clothing of the Boston One Price Clothing Store, Minneapolis.

WELL AUGER!
The best in the world. Bore in any soil.
Bore 3 to 6 feet if diameter, and any depth required. They will bore in any soil.

OPPIUM
HABIT CURED AT HOME
No publicity. Time short.
Solely for medicinal purposes.
Solely for medicinal purposes.

TEAS
The choicest in the world.—Importers of the finest teas, and all kinds of tea, from the best plantations in China, India, and Java. Solely for medicinal purposes.

MARRIAGE SECRETS.
A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.
MEDICAL ADVICE.
A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.

MARRIAGE SECRETS.
A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.
MEDICAL ADVICE.
A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.

MARRIAGE SECRETS.
A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.
MEDICAL ADVICE.
A BOOK FOR THE MILLION.

THE VIBRATOR

1000 SOLD LAST SEASON
WITHOUT ONE FAILURE OR DEFLECTION
This is the famous Thrashing machine that has swept the field and created such a revolution in the trade as to displace Great Britain and Texas.
No principles.

MUSTANG LINIMENT

WHICH HAS STOOD THE TEST OF 40
YEARS. THE BEST REMEDY FOR ALL
RHEUMATISM, BRUISES, SWELLINGS,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE JOINTS.
APPLIED TO THE SPINE, IT CURES
THE MOST PAINFUL AND OBSTINATE
HEADACHE. IT IS THE ONLY REMEDY
FOR THE LIFE OF A HUMAN BEING, AND
IS THE ONLY ONE THAT CAN BE
RELIED UPON IN ALL EMERGENCIES.

$25 & $50 PER DAY

Well Auger

WE MEAN IT!
And are prepared to demonstrate the fact.
OUR AUGERS are operated entirely by
HOUSE POWER, and will bore at the rate
of 20 FEET PER HOUR. They bore
3 TO 6 FEET IF DIAMETER,
AND ANY DEPTH REQUIRED. They will
bore in any soil.

P. R. L. HARDENBERG

Leather & Findings

THE THRESHER OF THE DAY

Metropolitan Hotel

J. D. Kaestner

THE MINNESOTA CHIEF!!!

THE VIBRATOR

1000 SOLD LAST SEASON
WITHOUT ONE FAILURE OR DEFLECTION
This is the famous Thrashing machine that has swept the field and created such a revolution in the trade as to displace Great Britain and Texas.
No principles.

MUSTANG LINIMENT

WHICH HAS STOOD THE TEST OF 40
YEARS. THE BEST REMEDY FOR ALL
RHEUMATISM, BRUISES, SWELLINGS,
AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE JOINTS.
APPLIED TO THE SPINE, IT CURES
THE MOST PAINFUL AND OBSTINATE
HEADACHE. IT IS THE ONLY REMEDY
FOR THE LIFE OF A HUMAN BEING, AND
IS THE ONLY ONE THAT CAN BE
RELIED UPON IN ALL EMERGENCIES.

$25 & $50 PER DAY

Well Auger

WE MEAN IT!
And are prepared to demonstrate the fact.
OUR AUGERS are operated entirely by
HOUSE POWER, and will bore at the rate
of 20 FEET PER HOUR. They bore
3 TO 6 FEET IF DIAMETER,
AND ANY DEPTH REQUIRED. They will
bore in any soil.

P. R. L. HARDENBERG

Leather & Findings

THE THRESHER OF THE DAY

Metropolitan Hotel

J. D. Kaestner

THE MINNESOTA CHIEF!!!

DETAILED SCHEDULE OF INDEBTEDNESS OF THE COUNTY OF CASS, MINNESOTA.

LIST OF ORDERS.

In Whose Favor Drawn	For What Purpose	No.	Date of Issue	Am't.	When Paid	Interest, Per Cent.
Shroy, Ross & Brown	Lumber for Court House	74	Apr 17, 1873	$100.00	1873	12
"	"	75	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	76	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	77	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	78	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	79	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	80	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	81	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	82	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	83	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	84	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	85	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	86	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	87	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	88	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	89	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	90	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	91	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	92	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	93	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	94	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	95	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	96	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	97	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	98	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	99	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	100	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	101	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	102	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	103	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	104	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	105	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	106	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	107	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	108	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	109	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	110	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	111	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	112	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	113	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	114	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	115	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	116	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	117	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	118	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	119	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	120	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	121	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	122	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	123	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	124	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	125	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	126	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	127	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	128	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	129	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	130	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	131	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	132	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	133	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	134	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	135	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	136	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	137	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	138	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	139	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	140	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	141	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	142	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	143	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	144	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	145	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	146	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	147	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	148	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	149	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	150	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	151	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	152	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	153	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	154	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	155	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	156	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	157	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	158	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	159	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	160	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	161	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	162	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	163	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	164	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	165	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	166	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	167	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	168	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	169	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	170	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	171	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	172	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	173	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	174	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	175	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	176	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	177	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	178	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	179	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	180	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	181	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	182	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	183	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	184	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	185	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	186	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	187	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	188	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	189	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	190	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	191	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	192	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	193	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	194	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	195	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	196	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	197	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	198	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	199	"	100.00	"	"
"	"	200	"	100.00	"	"

LIST OF BONDS AND COUPONS.

In Whose Favor Drawn	Nature of Claim	No.	When Issued	Am't.	When Due
Free Printing Company	Bond	1	July 1, 1873	$ 500	July 1, 1883
"	"	2	"	500	"
"	"	3	"	500	"
"	"	4	"	500	"
"	"	5	"	500	"
"	"	6	"	500	"
"	"	7	"	500	"
"	"	8	"	500	"
"	"	9	"	500	"
"	"	10	"	500	"
"	"	11	"	500	"
"	"	12	"	500	"
"	"	13	"	500	"
"	"	14	"	500	"
"	"	15	"	500	"
"	"	16	"	500	"
"	"	17	"	500	"
"	"	18	"	500	"
"	"	19	"	500	"
"	"	20	"	500	"
"	"	21	"	500	"
"	"	22	"	500	"
"	"	23	"	500	"
"	"	24	"	500	"
"	"	25	"	500	"
"	"	26	"	500	"
"	"	27	"	500	"
"	"	28	"	500	"
"	"	29	"	500	"
"	"	30	"	500	"
"	"	31	"	500	"
"	"	32	"	500	"
"	"	33	"	500	"
"	"	34	"	500	"
"	"	35	"	500	"
"	"	36	"	500	"
"	"	37	"	500	"
"	"	38	"	500	"
"	"	39	"	500	"
"	"	40	"	500	"
"	"	41	"	500	"
"	"	42	"	500	"
"	"	43	"	500	"
"	"	44	"	500	"
"	"	45	"	500	"
"	"	46	"	500	"
"	"	47	"	500	"
"	"	48	"	500	"
"	"	49	"	500	"
"	"	50	"	500	"
"	"	51	"	500	"
"	"	52	"	500	"
"	"	53	"	500	"
"	"	54	"	500	"
"	"	55	"	500	"
"	"	56	"	500	"
"	"	57	"	500	"
"	"	58	"	500	"
"	"	59	"	500	"
"	"	60	"	500	"
"	"	61	"	500	"
"	"	62	"	500	"
"	"	63	"	500	"
"	"	64	"	500	"
"	"	65	"	500	"
"	"	66	"	500	"
"	"	67	"	500	"
"	"	68	"	500	"
"	"	69	"	500	"
"	"	70	"	500	"
"	"	71	"	500	"
"	"	72	"	500	"
"	"	73	"	500	"
"	"	74	"	500	"
"	"	75	"	500	"
"	"	76	"	500	"
"	"	77	"	500	"
"	"	78	"	500	"
"	"	79	"	500	"
"	"	80	"	500	"
"	"	81	"	500	"
"	"	82	"	500	"
"	"	83	"	500	"
"	"	84	"	500	"
"	"	85	"	500	"
"	"	86	"	500	"
"	"	87	"	500	"
"	"	88	"	500	"
"	"	89	"	500	"
"	"	90	"	500	"
"	"	91	"	500	"
"	"	92	"	500	"
"	"	93	"	500	"
"	"	94	"	500	"
"	"	95	"	500	"
"	"	96	"	500	"
"	"				