reigning north-wester, and will result at once, though of necessity in a somewhat smaller scale and to be arranged to meet the situation by the use of necessary articles of furniture to start again.

Heaven to Diarm—A dead and fatal accident occurred in the west part of town on Tuesday evening last, that resulted in the death last evening of a little girl about four years old, daughter of Thomas Little, residing at North Ave. The little girl, in company with a number of other children, had gathered in the back yard and, running to and fro, she became excited and while engaged in her clothing was extinguished her back was burned from head to foot, a few complete raw areas of a third length of her body and limbs. She succumbed to her fearful agony while at evening at six o'clock, when she died. She was an exceeding bright and attractive child one of her friends and a very dear friend of the family. This fatal accident came out and being addressed to all who were her friends. This was the first accident of this kind that has occurred in our town, and it is to be hoped that it will be a lesson to all parents to be sure that their children are properly supervised when they are engaged in play. It is a lesson that we should all take to heart.
