

The Vigilants of 1856.

The famous episode in the early history of California, the vigilance committee of the civilized world in 1856, became dimly remembered in general recollection by the people of California, although perfectly remembered in California history.

Don't Stay Away From Church.

"We're not for public private worship, but we are for the church of Christ under God, the church of Christ over the world, and we are for the church of Christ in no public worship no religion."

Professional Shoplifters.

"Professional shoplifters," said a New York merchant, "are the most dangerous class of thieves that we have."

Devo Women.

The extraordinary courage of the Albanian women has been mentioned before and over again in the history of the country, but no one has more fully illustrated the heroism of the women of the Albanian people represented by the heroine of the present day, who was killed at Falla in 1912.

The state of affairs was much worse than that in 1850. It had been exposed in the Bulletin as a gradual...

"The wisest and the best of men have always felt their duty and their interest to worship God in public, as there is nothing more reasonable; he who neglects this duty is neglecting his duty as a citizen."

"The worst thing shoplifters do," he said, "in conclusion, is to steal from our customers. They are very fond of taking pocket knives and valises. We naturally get angry with them when they steal from us, for their victims are robbed of their property."

"The woman's name was Mrs. Mary Ann, and she was a native of the State of New York. She had been married for many years, and had several children."

"A man named himself as an inn in Valenciennes, France, and made a request to be admitted together with a very bulky portmanteau, which he carried on his back, and a small trunk, which he carried in his hand."

"The hair is the most desirable part of the body. The hair of the ancient Egyptians was long and black, and they used to wear it in a variety of styles."
